Kashrut Notice

Go Green Room no. 3

This serves to confirm that the kitchen section has been kashered by an official of the Cape Beth Din – Kashrut Department.

All the counters and kitchen sinks have been kashered.

The (washing up basins), cooking utensils, crockery and cutlery, small appliances (toaster & kettle), oven, stove, microwave and fridge should be found sealed with the official Beth Din tape which also designates the previous (meat, milk and parev) status of these items.

Only glasses and glass plates that are not ovenware will be unsealed. The glass plates are designated as milchik.

This is valid for the above stated room number and date only. All items found without a seal after your departure will be re-kashered.
